

Why don't you continue let XM radio provide local information to it;s listeners and focus your attention on real issues like radio hackers, illegal transmitters, or foul language on tv and radio. It's not like the kids ever heard foul language before, everyone grows up so why put limits on tv and radio?